Twenty-six peasants have been tried in Kiev, Russia, for forcibly occupying land not belonging to them, fourteen of whom were sentenced to ten years' imprisonment at hard labor, four to four years, and the rest to various terms of imprisonment.

The government has granted a pension of 500 pounds annually to the widow, and 100 pounds to the mother of Sir Lewis Cavagnari, murdered at Cabul.

The Australian parliament will be dissolved in February.

Much excitement has been caused in Spain by the refusal of the premier to allow the military to take part in the relief measures for the sufferers by the flood.

IN GENERAL.

Irish Relief Movements at Various Cities.

aiding Ireland.

St. Paul, Dec. 19.—At the close of the meeting to declare the sympathy of the people of St. Paul with the oppressed people of Ireland, last night, $1,500 was raised to be forwarded to Ireland, and a committee appointed to solicit subscription.

San Francisco, Dec. 19.—A large mass meeting was held at Union Hall last night in aid of the cause of the Irish sufferers. Resolutions were adopted appointing a committee to make collections to be forwarded to Ireland, and asking him to visit the city, and expressing sympathy with the people of Ireland on the land question.

Condensed Telegrams.

George Savage, a well-known temperance advocate, is dead.

Grant was given a public reception by the Philadelphia Commercial Exchange to-day.

Several arrests have been made in aid for seditions cries. Public tranquility, however, is disturbed.

The millers and flour dealers of St. Louis are agitating the establishment of a call board for transactions in flour.

Mary A. Murray, removed Monday from her position as clerk in the post-office at Baltimore, has brought suit against Postmaster Tyner, claiming $20,000 damages for assault. Miss Murray was the principal witness against the postmaster in a recent investigation.

ROAST BEEF.

Haddonfield, N. J., Dec. 19.—The home of Nic Browning, two miles from here, together with the contents was destroyed by fire to-day; twenty-three cows and two mules were roasted to death.

ADDITIONAL CITY NEWS.

Columbia street is getting its full share of burglaries.

Wm. Spiegel has gone to Bluffton, where he will furnish music for a dance to-night.

Henry Manning returned from Kendallville to-day, where he had been on an oil inspecting tour.

The time for the opening of the A. U. T. Company's office in this city is now set for about January 1st.

Bob. Jones, formerly with Capt. Harper of this city, has charge of A. P. Brown's branch hat store, 194 West Madison street, Chicago.

The twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. McGahan, of Buchanan street, died last night of lung fever. It is said that the child suffered intensely from lack of water (which had been forbidden her by the physician), and that she cries for water were pitiful to hear.

THE RAILROADS.

There was many an emigrant on No. 1 to-day.

A car load of water pipes is at the south depot.

The Pittsburgh shipped eighty-nine cars of stock east to-day.

E. J. Brownlee, late train dispatcher in the Grand Rapids office at this place, has accepted a position on the A. & P. Telegraph line at Cincinnati. Robert Reed succeeds him at this place.

Gus. Bloom, who has charge of the sand house in the Wabash yard at night, had his lunch stolen by some tramps last evening. He discovered them, but too late to save the lunch, and had to content himself with giving them a good "cussin."

The Wicked Ones.

F. Kruper called on Presiding Mayor Ryan this morning and acknowledged the corn; that is, that he had been imbibing in corn juice; and when the mayor got through talking to him he laid down a six dollar note and walked off.

Chas. Long wasn't quite so lucky. He was lucky in everything but the fact of not having six dollars. He was drunk, and he walked off, too, but he made a bad line for the jail.

Next month William Armstrong, William Hell, Mary Pritchard and Mary Foster. Now this pair of Williams and Marys persisted in playing "keep house," and the police as persistently locked them up. Their paths lay in the same direction until morning when William No. 1 went to jail for twelve days; Wm. No. 2 paid $12. Mary No. 1 was sick in bed and Mary No. 2 promised to reform and was sent home to sin no more.

AWFUL ANDY.

A lascivious Lunch Lagger Lights Out.

Mourned by a Cigar Merchant and Bloomingdale Girl.

Al. Foote wants to see "Boss Andy," the marshal wants to see him, the United States marshal wants to see him, and a young lady in Bloomingdale wants to see him very badly. But Andy has gone. He has left, departed, skipped out, flew—given up the shake, as it were.

Last evening Andy, whose initials are Andy H. Bellman, went into Al. Foote's cigar store and bought a box of cigars tendering in payment a $6 bill. The clerk thought it rather a suspicious looking bill and refused at first to take it. Andy, however, said it was all he had and if the bill wasn't good he should return it to him this morning and he would replace it with another.

This satisfied the clerk, and Andy departed the happy possessor of a box of cigars and the change in good money.

Andy be it known, is or rather was, the proprietor of the Olympic Restaurant, so this morning when Al. Foote saw the bill, he at once repaired to Andy's place of business to exchange it for a good one. Upon his arrival there he was highly gratified to learn that Andy had sold out to a man named Bill and had skipped out for parts unknown. Al. didn't rave and tear his hair and act foolish. Not much; he just sat down on a chair and swore until it began to rain, and then he walked off with a sort of itching in his hand to get hold of "Boss Andy" for about a minute.

But now comes

A SEQUEL.

It is said that Andy has been paying his devours to a fair young damsel in Bloomingdale, whose affections, it seems, have been centered on Andy, and no one but Andy. She thought of Andy sleeping and walking. This will, by the way, likely be the case for some time to come, notwithstanding the fact of Andy's absence.

CONGRESSIONAL SUMMARY.

THURSDAY, DEC. 18.—SIGNATE.—The vice president presented a communication from the secretary of the treasury, giving information on the cost of the and tax. A resolution was introduced by the Smith of the Western Union to prohibit the sale of stocks at Topeka, Kas., be held for contemplation. The petition for a monument to commemorate the victory at Yorktown was referred, also the petition for a labor commission. Davis's (W. Va.) resolution for agricultural contributions was passed. Winton's amendment to Voorhees's negro exodus resolution was rejected. The following bills were introduced and referred: By Coker to investigate the Indian frontiers; by Hendon, for continuing the national bank; by Pendleton, to loose. Winton offered a personal explanation on certain N. Y. Tribune contents. The bill for improving the channel at Sandy Hook was referred. The bill establishing the resolution was adopted. It will be an excellent thing to have this exodus business thoroughly probed.

to settlement a vast area of valuable public land which is now tied up in the hands of corporations which have never complied with the conditions under which the grants were made. Undoubtedly these corporations will make a desperate effort to defeat the resolution, but every congressman who votes against it will be branded by the people as a tool of the jobbers.

THE GRANT men controlled the action of the national republican committee. DON CAMERON, who was elected chairman, is a pronounced GRANT man. He was GRANT's secretary of war, and although he is related to SHERMAN he is emphatically for GRANT's nomination. He is a man of large wealth, a good deal of political skill, and utterly unscrupulous. In 1876-7 he, as secretary of war, made the great Louisiana fraud possible. The selection of Chicago as the place for holding the convention will also result favorably to GRANT, for he is stronger in Chicago than in any other city in the country. It is tolerably evident also that SHERMAN is out of the race and that all the elements of opposition to GRANT will concentrate on BLAINE.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

THE New York Sun calls attention to the fact that the subsidy beggars are organizing for a grand raid on congress, to which body all kinds of begging and swindling schemes will be presented. Since the democrats got control of congress, the subsidy beggars have had a hard time of it. The democratic congresses have steadfastly refused to squander the public moneys or lands upon the many grasping corporations and monopolies which have knocked at the door for help. If there is any thing that the democracy of the country is substantially united in, it is opposition to jobbers, lobbyists and monopolists. The present congress should keep the faith, and turn a deaf ear to all the beggars who are trying to break into the treasury.

Mr. VOORHEES's resolution for an investigation into the negro exodus came up yesterday in the senate and provoked a lively debate. Mr. VOORHEES declared that he had no political motive in introducing this resolution but that he offered it in the interest of justice and humanity. Mr. Hill, of Georgia, bore testimony to the thrift and industry of the negroes in his state, and said that under democratic government the colored people of Georgia were better clothed, better fed, better educated and more prosperous than they ever had been under republican rule. Remarks were also made by Senators CONKLING, GARLAND, RANSON, WINDOM, McDONALD, JONES and DAVIS. Mr. INGALLS, of Kansas, deprecated the exodus movement and believed it would not inure to the benefit of the negroes. Mr. VOORHEES accepted Mr. WINNOR's amendment providing for an inquiry into the alleged maltreatment of negroes at the south, and as thus amended the resolution was adopted. It will be an excellent thing to have this exodus business thoroughly probed.

An exciting discussion arose in the senate yesterday on Voorhees's negro immigration resolution. Voorhees disclaimed all political motives in offering it, while Ben Hill denounced the whole negro agitation as a piece of demagoguery.

STATE NEWS.

John Ryker lost a leg in a saw mill at Butlerville Tuesday.

Ben Whitait was arrested at Madison Wednesday for incendiarism.

Two men were killed in a mine at Bristol Wednesday by the falling of the roof.

Morgan Jordan, living near Hagerstown, was shot by a chicken thief Sunday night.

Erastus Johnson, sixteen years old, was convicted of horse-stealing at Hartford City Wednesday.

Chas. Willett of Evansville, went heavenward Wednesday, by the morphine route, but whether it was a suicide or accident is not known.

At Madison Tuesday night a colored man named Mason was hit with a billiard cue by another negro named Robinson, from the effects of which he is not expected to recover.

James Morris, of Sullivan, some years ago learned to make fire crackers and concluded to transmit this knowledge to his eldest heir and hopeful "George," aged seven. The young man was given powder and shown how to proceed, but he made a batch of it. The powder exploded and George was badly burned.

The Decatur Democrat has the following:

There is a well founded report to the effect that the Chicago Tribune's bitterness towards Samuel Tilden has wholly in the fact that he treated with contempt a proposition by the editor of that paper, the spring of 1877, the Tribune, as ever, having been originally circumcised, and the report which is very intimate with Mr. Tilden, says that Story, of the Tribune, proposed to keep up the "boom" in the Tilden "boom" for the sum of $100,000. Tilden treated it like an honest man would, with contempt. Since that time the Tribune has been anything but a Tilden organ.

CONGRESSIONAL SUMMARY.

THURSDAY, DEC. 18.—SUMMARY.—The vice president presented a communication from the secretary of the treasury, giving the amount of the national debt for the year. A resolution was passed that Smith, manager of the Western Union telegraph at Topeka, Kans., be held responsible for the omission to commemorate the victory at Yorktown as referred to in the petition for a law committee. David W. L. Tilden's resolution for the appointment of an agricultural commission was passed. W. H. Smith's amendment to the negro exodus resolution was rejected. The following bills were introduced and referred: By Cokel to investigate the Indian troubles; by Hendricks, to regulate interstate commerce; by Tilden to regulate interstate freight; by Hawley, for the relief of Myra Clark Gaines; by Hatch, to amend the internal revenue laws; by Bapp, to encourage inter-state emigration.

In another column the facts in the Maine case are concisely presented by Mr. PILLSBURY, the democratic leader of that state. Mr. PILLSBURY shows that the canvassing board are pretty well fortified by the law.

AMONG the names mentioned as possible successors to Judge PERKINS on the supreme bench, we notice that of N. B. TAYLOR, of Indianapolis. Mr. TAYLOR is very highly regarded by the bar of this city, and his appointment would be very acceptable to them.

A SUDDEN change has been made in the programme of GRANT's travels. As originally arranged his great receptions in New York, Boston and Brooklyn were to take place about the holidays, but it is now announced that he is to switch off to Cuba and Mexico, where he will pass the winter. In the spring he will return and will have his grand receptions in the New York and New England cities just in time to influence the national republican convention. The GRANT boom is being skillfully managed.

SENATOR MORGAN, of Alabama, has introduced an excellent resolution, declaring forfeited all public lands granted in aid of railroad and telegraph lines, and ordering such lands opened to public settlement, pre-emption and homestead entry. This will open up to settlement a vast area of valuable public land which is now tied up in the hands of corporations which have never complied with the conditions under which the grants were made. Undoubtedly these corporations will make a desperate effort to defeat the resolution, but every congressman who votes against it will be branded by the people as a tool of the jobbers.

THE GRANT men controlled the action of the national republican committee. DON CAMERON, who was elected chairman, is a pronounced GRANT man. He was GRANT's secretary of war, and although he is related to SHERMAN he is emphatically for GRANT's nomination. He is a man of large wealth, a good deal of political skill, and utterly unscrupulous. In 1876-7 he, as secretary of war, made the great Louisiana fraud possible. The selection of Chicago as the place for holding the convention will also result favorably to GRANT, for he is stronger in Chicago than in any other city in the country. It is tolerably evident also that SHERMAN is out of the race and that all the elements of opposition to GRANT will concentrate on BLAINE.

THE NEW YORK SUN calls attention to the fact that the subsidy beggars are organizing for a grand raid on congress, to which body all kinds of begging and swindling schemes will be presented. Since the democrats got control of congress, the subsidy beggars have had a hard time of it. The democratic congresses have steadfastly refused to squander the public money or lands upon the many grasping corporations and monopolies which have knocked at the door for help. If there is one thing that the democracy of the country is substantially united in, it is opposition to jobbers, lobbyists and monopolists. The present congress should keep the faith and turn a deaf ear to all the beggars who are trying to break into the treasury.

MR. VOORHEES's resolution for an investigation into the negro exodus came up yesterday in the senate, and provoked a lively debate. Mr. Voorhees declared that he had no political motive in introducing this resolution, but that he offered it in the interest of justice and humanity. Mr. Hill, of Georgia, bore testimony to the thrift and industry of the negroes in his state, and said that under democratic government the colored people of Georgia were better clothed, better fed, better educated and more prosperous than they ever had been under republican rule. Remarks were also made by Senators CONKLING, GARDNER, RANDON, WINDOM, McDONALD, JONES and DAVIS. Mr. INGALLS, of Kansas, deprecated the exodus movement and believed it would not inure to the benefit of the negroes. Mr. Voorhees accepted Mr. WINDOM's amendment providing for an inquiry into the alleged maltreatment of negroes at the south, and as thus amended the resolution was adopted. It will be an excellent thing to have this exodus business thoroughly probed.

STATE POLITICS.

Waterloo Press:

Present favorites for the democratic presidential ticket appear to be Seymour and Hendricks; but it will be necessary to convince Hendricks that he has no show for the first place before he will agree to take the second place.

The Evansville Courier says:

Every now and then some interviewer, alluding to Indiana, declares that the democrats of this state are divided upon the presidential question. This is a mistake. No delegation can be sent from Indiana to the national convention to nominate a candidate.

The Decatur Democrat says:

One of the most astute political observers of the day says that if the democratic national convention nominates a man who is acceptable only to the John Kelly crowd, it will not be voted for in Indiana. He also says that if Mr. Tilden can't be elected no other democrat can come within a million miles of him. Mr. Tilden is the only man who can carry New York who has not Mr. Tilden for him, and he says, if Mr. Tilden is not nominated he is out of politics.

The Decatur Democrat has the following:

There is a well founded report to the effect that the Chicago Times' bitterness towards Samuel J. Tilden lies wholly in the fact that he treated with contempt the editor of that paper. During the campaign he was very much embarrassed and the report, which comes from a gentleman who is very intimate with the editor, states that he was greatly annoyed by the editor's conduct. The Times, proposed to keep up the "boom" known as the Tilden "boom" for the sum of $100,000. Mr. Tilden is not like an honest man who, with contempt, says that the Times has been anything but a Tilden organ.

I said, 'not a prinsepse! I'm in the shw bizness!'"

MISS ROSANNA LOOMIS WENTWORTH, the daughter of the Hon. John Wentworth, of Chicago, is a fortunate young lady. It is related that her father had had $115,000 in 4 percents registered in her name.

COL. JOHN A. COCKERILL, so well and favorably known in Ohio and elsewhere throughout the country as an enterprising manager, and brilliant editorial writer, has severed his connection with the Baltimore Gazette, with a view to assuming the editorial management of Pulitzer's paper, the Post-Dispatch, of St. Louis.

Gen. GRANT men controlled the action of the national republican committee. DON CAMERON, who was elected chairman, is a pronounced GRANT man. He was GRANT's secretary of war, and although he is related to SHERMAN he is emphatically for GRANT's nomination. ### CITY MATTERS.

The committees on assessments and taxes, finance and judiciary, met at the water works trustees' office, on Clinton street, last night, to form a definite plan of action respecting the prosecution of the suit of the city against the Fort Wayne, Jackson and Saginaw Railroad for the recovery of the land donated to said company at the time of its organization. A resolution was drawn which will be presented to the council next Tuesday night.

A resolution was also prepared in reference to the suit of Chas. McCulloch against the city for relief from taxation assessed by the city. A recent act of the legislature provides that property, although annexed to the city, but used for farming purposes and not platted, shall be taxed only at township rates. The resolution in question, recommends a compromise with Mr. McCulloch.

A SURPRISED PHYSICIAN.

A DYING PATIENT RECOVERS THROUGH THE INTERPOSITION OF A HUMBLE GERMAN.—Some weeks ago Dr. G., a very reputable and widely-known physician, living on C street, was called to attend a very complicated case of rheumatism. Upon arriving at the house, he found a man about forty years of age, lying in a prostrated and serious condition, with his whole frame dangerously affected with the painful disease. He prescribed for the patient, but the man continued to grow worse, and on Sunday evening he was found to be in a very alarming condition. The knees and elbows and larger joints were greatly inflamed and could not be moved. It was only with extreme difficulty that the patient could be turned in bed, with the aid of three or four persons. The weight of the clothing was so oppressive that means had to be adopted to keep it from the patient's body.

The doctor saw that his assistance would be of no avail, and left the house, the members of the family following him to the door, weeping. At this critical hour, a poor and poor German shoemaker, appeared to the grief-stricken ones as a saving angel. He had heard of the despair of the family, and now asked them to try his remedy, and accordingly brought forth a bottle of St. Jacob's Oil. As a drowning man will catch at straws, so the poor wife applied this remedy; she had no hope, but would try anything, as a matter of duty. The first application eased the patient very much; after a few hours they used it again, and, wonder of wonders, the pain vanished entirely! Every subsequent application improved the sufferer and in two days he was well and out. When the doctor called a few days after, he was indeed surprised; for, instead of a corpse, he found a new-born baby.

Mr. Bond's New Venture.

We have received, Mr. Henry W. Bond's catalogue advertised in another column. Mr. Bond has opened an agency at 58 Wacker street, New York, for the purchase of everything used in the parlor, library, dining room, chamber, kitchen, stable, carriage house, and used or worn by ladies, gentlemen, and young people. In the preface to his catalogue he explains his manner of doing business, and sums up as follows:

"Prices are lower in New York than elsewhere, the variety greater, and the styles the best."

"My object is to put parties living out of the city on equal terms with its residents."

"My specialty is knowing about the value of goods, the best places to buy, and in making this knowledge serviceable to my customers."

"I give each customer's order prompt attention, insuring accuracy and dispatch."

"Charge no commission, as merchants allow agencies a discount for cash, on account of large purchases, which they will not give to private parties."

"Having once tried this plan you will find it advantageous and convenient."

We can say for Mr. Bond that any commission intrusted to him will be discharged honestly and intelligently.

LOCAL CRIME.

Arrest of a Suspicious Character by Officer Kelly.

Another Attempted Burglary on Columbia Street.

Yesterday morning a lady passenger on the Western bound Wabash passenger train, which left here at 6 o'clock, complained, after leaving here, that her seal skin sacque, valued at $200 had been stolen out of a paluce coach. On board the train was a sleek looking, loudly dressed young man who got aboard here and went as far as Huntington. He started back yesterday afternoon, and secreted himself in a water closet, where the conductor found him. He was put off Roanoke, but took another train, and upon his arrival here this afternoon was arrested on suspicion by Officer Kelly. Upon his person was found a very curious collection of articles, including several packages of cigarettes, several boxes of wax matches, silk handkerchiefs, gold pens, hoseley knives, pencils, keys, combs, and divers and sundry vials and bottles containing unknown liquids, etc. It is believed the fellow has been mixed up recently in the burglary of some fancy goods and notion store, and it is surmised that he may be the man who stole the seal skin sacque. He gave his name as Wm. Clark, but on his person was found a card bearing this name, "Thos. Conard, Altoona, Pa." He was locked up to await development.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

This morning, when the clerk of W. H. Miller, who keeps a grocery store at No. 25 West Columbia street, came down to open up, he found that some one had forestalled him and had done the job for him, the back door being wide open. He at once notified Mr. Miller, and an examination was made. The back door was secured by a bar across it which was fastened by two staples driven into the door frame. Both staples were torn out, being insecure in the first place, and the bar was found standing up along side of the door. The key was turned in the lock and as stated before, the door was wide open. Close examination failed to show any marks of a jimmy or an instrument of any kind on the door and Mr. Miller has missed nothing, not even so much as an apple from his stock. His theory is that the would be thief had secreted himself in the back part of the store before he closed for the night, which could easily be done, and that before he began any operations on the stock he thoughtfully provided a way for escape, in case he should be disturbed, and that after he had the door opened and everything in readiness, he was alarmed by something or someone, and precipitated fled without taking any plunder.

Owen Fawcett and John German appearing in the parts of the Dromios. The performance was remarkable for its excellence, and gave entire satisfaction throughout. The audience at the conclusion had nothing but praise for the play, and Mr. Wallack's company was pronounced one of the best that has ever visited the city. The company includes the popular Frank Alken, Genevieve Rogers, Owen Fawcett, John German and a number of thorough artists.

WALLACK STAR COMPANY.

Of the Wallack Company which appears at the Academy next Monday evening, the Quizzy (Ill.) Times says:

The Wallack combination appeared at the Opera House before a large and appreciative audience last evening in Shakespeare's comedy, "The Two Brothers." Owen Fawcett and John German appearing in the parts of the Dromios. The performance was remarkable for its excellence, and gave entire satisfaction throughout. The audience at the conclusion had nothing but praise for the play, and Mr. Wallack's company was pronounced one of the best that has ever visited the city. The company includes the popular Frank Alken, Genevieve Rogers, Owen Fawcett, John German and a number of thorough artists.

WALLACK STAR COMPANY.

Yesterday afternoon a little son of J. E. Tonne, who lives a mile and a half south of the city, attempted to climb upon a load of wood which his father was bringing to the city, when he slipped and fell under the wagon, one wheel passing over his leg fracturing it in two places between the knee and ankle. The accident happened about one mile from the city. Dr. Younge was called and set the broken limb. The little sufferer is now quite comfortable.

Mr. Bond's New Venture.

We have received Mr. Henry W. Bond's catalogue advertised in another column. Mr. Bond has opened an agency at 58 Waiker street, New York, for the purchase of everything used in the parlor, library, dining room, chamber, kitchen, stable, carriage house, and every room by ladies, gentlemen, and young people. In the preface to his catalogue he explains his manner of doing business, and sums up as follows:

"Prices are lower in New York than elsewhere, the variety greater, and the styles the best."

"My object is to put parties living out of the city on a par with its residents. My specialty is knowing about the value of goods, the best places to buy, and in making this knowledge serviceable to my customers."

"I give each customer's order prompt attention, insuring accuracy and dispatch."

"I charge no commission, as merchants allow agencies a discount for cash, on account of large purchases, which they will not give to private parties."

"Having once tried this plan you will find it advantageous and convenient."

"We can say for Mr. Bond that any commission intrusted to him will be discharged honestly and intelligently."

Colicker's Opera House is to be repainted, repaired, renovated, decorated and supplied with new scenery, etc., after which it will be opened to the public as a first class variety theater.

Diphtheria is prevailing in a good many cities and towns surrounding this city, but Fort Wayne seems to be entirely free from it. At Grand Rapids it is epidemic. A worthy couple of that city lost their entire family of five children by this disease last Saturday between sunrise and sunset.

These cases of diphtheria are peculiar. There is a pauper girl at the poor house, who has been afflicted with this disease for some months, according to the opinion of her attending physician, who prescribed large doses of jalap for its removal. In due time the jalap had the desired effect. The dropsy culminated a few days ago. It is a boy and weighs twelve pounds.

Rev. W. N. Webbe arrived from Evansville with his family last evening and is stopping at the Hamilton House. He will enter upon his duties as rector of Trinity Church next Sunday. The Rev. Webbe is a gentleman of fine talents, agreeable presence and indomitable energy. He will doubtless infuse some life into the sleepy old Trinity Church.

Col. Robertson is at Washington, it is understood on business connected with the prospective pardon of Joseph G. LOCAL CRIME.*Arrest of a Suspicious Character by Officer Kelly.*Another Attempted Burglary on Columbia Street.

Yesterday morning a lady passenger on the Western bound Wabash passenger train, which left here at 5 o'clock, complained, after leaving here, that her seal skin sacque, valued at $200 had been stolen out of a palace coach. On board the train was a sleek looking, loudly dressed young man who got aboard here and went as far as Huntington. He started back yesterday afternoon, and secreted himself in water closet, where the conductor found him. He was put off at Roanoke, but took another train, and upon his arrival here this afternoon was arrested on suspicion by Officer Kelly. Upon his person was found a very curious collection of articles, including several packages of cigarettes, several boxes of wax matches, silk handkerchiefs, gold pens, hoseery, knives, pencils, keys, combs, and divers and sundry vials and bottles containing unknown liquids, etc., etc. It is believed the fellow has been mixed up recently in the burglary of some fancy goods and notion store, and it is surmised that he may be the man who stole the seal skin sacque. He gave his name as Wm. Clark, but on his person was found a card bearing this name, "Thos. Conrad, Altoona, Pa." He was locked up to await developments.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

This morning, when the clerk of W. H. Miller, who keeps a grocery store at No. 25 West Columbia street, came down to open up, he found that some one had forestalled him and had done the job for him, the back door being wide open. He at once notified Mr. Miller, and an examination was made. The back door was secured by a bar across it which was fastened by two staples driven into the door frame. Both staples were torn out, being insecure in the first place, and the bar was found standing up along side of the door. The key was turned in the lock and as stated before, the door was wide open. Close examination failed to show any marks of a jimmy or an instrument of any kind on the door and Mr. Miller has missed nothing, not even so much as an apple from his stock. His theory is that the would be thief had secreted himself in the back part of the store before he closed for the night, which could easily be done, and that before he began any operations on the stock he thoughtfully provided a way for escape, in case he should be disturbed, and that after he had the door opened and everything in readiness, he was alarmed by something or someone, and precipitately fled without taking any plunder.

AMUSEMENTS.

JOE MURPHY. Joe Murphy will appear at the Academy to-morrow night in his new play "Shaun Rhue." Judging from the advance sale, the Academy will be crowded. Mr. Murphy is conceded to be the best Irish comedian on the stage. His songs and dances are immense. The prices remain as usual, 25, 50 and 75 cents.

THE WALLACK STAR COMPANY.

Of the Wallack Company which appears at the Academy next Monday evening, the Quincy (Ill.) Times says:
